3122 Christ Has Broken Down the Wall

One: O Lord, you have searched me and known me!

All: You know, when I sit down and when I rise up; you discern my thoughts from afar.

One: You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways.

All: Even before a word is on my tongue, O Lord, you know it altogether.

One: You pursue me behind and before, and lay your hand upon me.

All: Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain it.

One: Whither shall I go from your spirit?

All: Or whither shall I flee from your presence?

One: If I ascend to heaven, you are there!
If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there!

All: If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me.

One: If I say, "Let only darkness cover me, and the light about me be night,"

All: Even the darkness is not dark to you, the night is bright as the day; for darkness is as light with you.

One: For it was you who formed my inward part,

All: You knit me together in my mother's womb.

One: I praise you, for you are fearful and wonderful.

All: Wonderful are your works!

One: You know me very well;

All: My frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately wrought in the depths of the earth.

One: Your eyes beheld my unformed substance;

All: In your book were written the days that were formed for me, every day, before they came into being.

One: How profound to me are your thoughts, O God!
How vast is the sum of them!

All: If I would count them, they are more than the sand. When I awake, I am still with you.
