

WELCOME

We extend a cordial welcome to each person worshiping with us today. If you need any assistance, please call on our ushers or greeters. They would be glad to help you. If you have an infant or toddler, the ushers would be glad to direct you to our nursery. Following the service, please join us in the Social Hall for refreshments and fellowship. We hope you have a meaningful worship experience and will leave Asbury renewed, fulfilled, and challenged!

The flowers presented today in memory of our Loved Ones will be arranged and delivered to people who will be blessed by them. We thank the members of our Flower Ministry for their service.

ANNOUNCEMENTS Rev. Billy Hester

*CALL TO WORSHIP

One: When the tomb looms large before our eyes, remind us, Lord, who we are:

All: We are children of the resurrection;
the place of death will not hold us.

One: God is our refuge and strength.
We gather in the power and sure promise of resurrection.

All: We are surrounded by a cloud of witnesses.
Death has no dominion over them.
Thanks be to God!

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory for ever.

ALL SAINTS' DAY LITANY

We remember the great ancestors of our faith,
from Abraham and Sarah, to Paul and Phoebe:

Ancestors of the faith, we remember you.

We remember the prophets and priests,
the ministers and teachers who have taught us the way of God:

Teachers of the faith, we remember you.

We remember our grandparents and parents, aunts and uncles,
those who have gone before us in our lifetime:

Family of our faith, we remember you.

We lift up the memories of children and grandchildren,
brothers and sisters, husbands and wives and parents
whose lives ended too soon:

Those close in our heart, we remember you.

We lift up to You, O God,
the names of those we have lost in this past year from our lives,
knowing that they are with Your heart forever.

As we read these names, we pause to remember, pray, and give thanks for their life.

(Reading of the names of those who have died since November 1, 2015, last All Saints Sunday.)

PRAYER OF THANKSGIVING

Accept our thanks, dear God, for your gift of life,
for all that you gave us in our birth;
for all that you give us in the richness of our journeys,
we give you thanks;
and all this we bring to you, our God,
From our life to your life, O God.

Accept our thanks, dear God, for the memories of our Loved Ones;
for their friendship and for the multitude of ways they influenced our lives and your Church;
for your promise of eternal life,
and for our faith that tells us we will one day be with them again;
all these we bring to you, O God,
From our life to your life, O God.

Invitation and Prayer for Holy Communion

We gather around this table at the invitation of our God and in communion with generations past and generations yet unborn.

At your table, O God, we receive the gift of bread and cup.
These are the symbols you provide that remind us of your love.

We thank you, Almighty God, for creating the gift of life.

We thank you for the life and ministry of Jesus and for the sustaining work of the Holy Spirit.

We thank you for the faithful living of saints for all centuries.

We thank you for the witness of those who gave their lives in your service.

In the presence of this cloud of witnesses,
we gather around this table and remember that on the night of betrayal and desertion, Jesus gathered with his disciples for the Passover meal.

He blessed and broke the bread, saying:

“This is my body which is broken for you.

Do this in remembrance of me.”

We remember that in the same way Jesus took the cup, after supper, and said: “This cup is the new covenant in my blood.

Do this as often as you drink, in remembrance of me.”

Let us pray:

Eternal God,
we stand in sacred community with all the faithful
and before these gifts of your love.
We ask you to send your Holy Spirit
on this bread and on this wine and on us.
Strengthen your universal church
that it may be the champion of peace and justice in all the world.
Restore the earth with your grace that it is able to make all things new.
In Christ's name, we pray. Amen.
